THE REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

Chairman C. W. Hackett, of the Republican State Committee; Chairman Benjamin B. Odell, jr., of the State Executive Committee, and Thomas C. Platt had a consultation at No. 49 Broadway yesterday. After Mr. Hackett had gone to Long Branch and Mr. Odell had started for his home in Newburg and Mr. Platt was making his way to his summer resort on Manhattan Beach, a rumor was set that the "slate" which for some days has orne the name of Judge Celora E. Martin, of Binghamton, for nomination for Judge of the Court of Appeals, this year, had been subjected to an erasure, and that Judge Leslie W. Russell, of St. Lawrence unty, was likely to be the choice of the Saratoga Convention for that office. Politicians well ted in State affairs branded the rumor last evening as without probable foundation and reiterated the statement that the Binghamton Judge was certain of a place on the Republican State ticket for the Court of Appeals bench. Commissioner Brookfield, Edward Lauterbach, nd ex-Assemblyman Patterson, of Waterl eca County, who were among the callers at Republican State headquarters last evening, pleasantly discussed Republican prospects in the State this fall, and were unanimous in the opinion that no possible Democratic combination could prevent a Republican victory in the State next November. In the absence of Chairman Hackett and Secretary Kenyon, Colonel Reuben L. Fox, chief clerk of the committee, entertained the visitors.

Ex-Senator Warner Miller, it is said, will be asked to accept the place of permanent chairman of the Republican State Convention at Saratoga on September 17. can State headquarters last evening, pleasant-

Watertown, N. Y., Aug. 29.-Ex-Governor Flower as elected a delegate from the Third Ward of this city, in which he lives, at the Democratic caucus last night, and he was elected chairman of the 1st Assembly District Democratic Convention, held in this city to-day. He made an address, in which he

this city to-day. He made an address, in which he said:

I do not assume to bespeak the action of the Democratic State Convention on any of the important matters which will come before it for decision, but may opportunities to learn the sentiments of the party lead me to believe, as I hope, that the convention will be disposed to extend the hand of genuine fellowship to every party organization entitled to consideration, to overlook past factional quarries to reunite the party on a platform and for nominees—in short, to begin the campaign in such a nominees—in short, to begin the campaign in such a way as to win and deserve success. If the party is not thus represented in the convention, let the fault rest on those who claim to have grievances over past treatment, and not on the convention itself.

There is something I am sure you will not think is an unwarranted assumption. That is, this convention, over which you have so kindly asked me to preside will menter tis desire for the nomination of Daniel G. Griffin for Attorney-General. Such action will meet my hearty approval. His reputation as a lawyer, his high character as a citizen, and his thorough knowledge of public affairs render him a strong candidate for his party, and assure every one that, if elected, the important office of Attorney-General will be filled by one worthy the position.

The Committee was appointed, eight vacancies being left, which the committee was given power to fill.

The following nominations were made: Secretary of State, Thaddeus B. Wakeman, of New-York; State Controller, David Rosseau, of New-York; State Treasurer, H. L. Case, of Victor, Ontario County; Attorney-General, Lawrence J. McParlin, of Lockport: State Engineer and Surveyor, R. A. Borden, of Glens Falls; Judge of the Court of Appeals, Charles Ward, of Livonia Station.

A motion was carried recommending that the National Committee be composed of one member from each State, instead of three, as heretofore. The convention adjourned at 630 o'clock.

UTAH'S REPUBLICAN TICKET. SHARP CONTEST FOR THE GOVERNORSHIP-A

WOMAN HONORED. Salt Lake, Utah, Aug. 29.-The Republican State Convention yesterday nominated Charles S. Zane, George W. Bartch and James A. Miner, all of Sait Lake City, for the Supreme Court. The first named was for many years Chief Justice of the Territory. Bartch is now Judge of the Second Judicial Distriand Miner was Judge of the Fourth Judicial District, but is now practising law in this city. Heber Wells, a Salt Lake banker, was nominated for Governor; Clarence Allen, a Salt Lake lawyer, for Governor, Charence Alien, a said Lake Congressman, James T. Hammond, of Logan, for Secretary of State; James Chipman, of American Fork, for State Treasurer; A. C. Bishop, of Ogden, for Attorney-General, and Morgan Richards, of Iron County, for State Auditor. Fork, for State Treasurer; A. C. Bishop, of Oguen, for Attorney-General, and Morgan Richards, of Iron County, for State Auditor.

Mrs. Emma J. McVicker was named for Superintendent of Public Instruction, provided the Territorial Supreme Court decides the question of the legality of woman suffrage, now pending, in the affirmative. In case the court holds against the women, Dr. John R. Park is to be substituted for Mrs. McVicker. The appointment of a State Committee ended the business, and the convention adjourned at midnight.

The most hotly contested nomination was that of Governor. Charles Crane, a wealthy sheepman, and ex-Governor A. L. Thomas, were the representatives of the two factions, Crane leading on the first ballot. On the second the plum went to Wells, a dark horse.

A REPUBLICAN LEAGUE ADDRESS. EARLY ORGANIZATION FOR THE PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN URGED.

Chicago, Aug. 29.-On behalf of the National Republican League, President McAlpin and Secretary Dowling to-day sent greetings to all State leagues, League clubs and Republicans generally throughout the United States. In view of the probable shortening of the next Presidential campaign by the National Committee, attention is called to the importance of Republican League Club work, and all find at least twenty-five thousand well-organize League clubs ready for the campaign of education that will occupy the winter months. It continues that will occupy the winter months. It continues:

As Republicans we have differed upon tariff schedules, inancial systems, social and religious questions, out we are all loyal to the Republic and will rally to its support when danger threatens from within or without. That danger threatens from within needs but the record of the last two years for proof. It is useless to dwell upon the mistakes of the present Administration. From the Pacific outrage to the overthrow of the Monroe Doctrine, it has been one continuous course of un-American blunders. A return to Republicanism means a return to Americanism.

MARYLAND DEMOCRATS CUTTING LOOSE. Baltimore, Aug. 29 (Special).-Prominent Maryland Democrats heretofore connected with the Ger-man machine are cutting loose from it and com-ing out as reformers. Following the scathing denunciation of the machine methods last week by Governor Brown and ex-Governor Jackson, William Pickney White, ex-Governor and ex-United States Senator, comes out in an interview as follows:

"The time has arrived when manhood demand of those who are Democrats from principle that they should not be led like sheep to the slaughter they should not be led like sheep to the slaughter by those who 'leap into the saddle' and constitute themselves 'leaders.' I do not recognize the nomination of John E. Hurs: as made by the Democratic party, and I shall not support it. The situation is a serious one for the Democracy, but now is the accepted time when every man of brave instincts and honorable aspirations feels the political yoke is no longer bearable.'

The clear-cut, honest political outlined by Mr. Lowndes in his letter of acceptance given out today has received hearty indorsement from the anti-machine Democrats as well as the Republicans.

The meeting of the Democratic State Committee to-day, called for the purpose of making John E. Hurst, the millionaire Democratic nomince, acquainted with the leaders and workers for the party in the counties, was more like a funeral than a love feast. There was not the slightest enthusiasm. Senator Corman, who it had been announced would be present, was conspicuous by his absence.

FOR THE CAMPAIGN IN NEW-JERSEY.

Trenton, Aug. 29.—The Executive Committee of the New-Jersey Republican League met here the the New-Jersey Republican Lergue met here this evening. Edmund C. Hill, of this city, was re-elected treasurer. A committee was appointed to confer with the State Republican Executive Committee as to the best means to bring out the vote at the coming election. It was also decided to issue a monthly paper in the interest of the league.

THEY HAVE DICIDED NOT TO CHEAT.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 29.-The State Democratic Executive Committee met here to-day, the only mat discussed being the Congress campaign now on his resignation several months ago, being satisfied that more votes had been poiled in the district than was warranted by a just count. He did this although he had a majority on the face of the returns of 7,000. In the mean time the Legislature has passed a general State Registration law under which all elections are protected by a rigid registration, which regulation did not exist in the last election. The Democratic Committee to-day discussed the situation and determined to render all assistance in its power to the received of Major Plack. The election takes place Citable 2 and the regulation closes on September 11. The condition precedent to registration is the power of taxes. The election will be strictly a fair one and the better sentiment of the district has a serminal that it shall be nothing else. though he had a majority on the face of the re-

CAMPBELL TO CONTROL HIS CAMPAIGN Columbus, Aug. 29 (Special).-The new Democratic piece of political machinery for Senator Brice, Campbell, the candidate for Governor, was generously allowed to place a few personal friends in actual control of the campaign. Strice was discreetly absent to-day. Campbell came in at noon It took al. afternoon for the Campbell and Bricmen to agree on a chairman and a State Executive Committee. The result was the selection of ex-Congressman Charles M. Anderson, of Greenville, as chairman, with eight other Democrats of local renown to assist him. They are F. J. Reinhart, of Columbus; William Beatty, of Toledo; J. J. Mc-

Maken, of Butler; John Vanfleet, of Kenton; B. W. Layton, of Wapakoneta; J. F. Norton, of Tiffin; J. P. Seward, of Mansfield, and George W. McCook, of Steubenville This committee will meet early next week and arrange at once for a formal opening of the Democratic campaign. It is practically conceded that the opening will be at Columbus, Saturday. September 28. Ex-Governor Campbell wants it to be then, and his wishes will be respected. Ex-Governor Foraker and General Bushnell, Republican candidate for Governor, happened to be here to-day and both joined in chaffing Campbell on the defeat which awaits him in November.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 29.-The special committee ppointed a few days ago by the Democratic State Central Committee to find a way out of the diffi-culties caused by the declaration of P. W. Hardin, the nominee for Governor, in favor of free silver colnage, issued a rather remarkable address tonight to the Democratic voters of the State. It is signed by Charles R. Long, General J. B. Castleman, Urey Woodson and others. It says in part: man, Urey Woodson and others, It says in part.

Whatever opinions you may hold as to economic questions, whatever differences there may exist relative thereto, we earnestly and sincerely ask you to lay them on the altar of the party for its safety and success, and unite in one great effort to defeat the Republican party and its nominees. Certainly no true Democrat desires the election of the Republican ticket and the defeat of the Democratic ticket.

"No Czar business here," shouted Thompson. "I came here to perfect an organization and not to be gagged," exclaimed Thompson.
"Won't some one give me something to rap for order with?" exclaimed Mr. Cowan. A cane was given to him, and pounded for nearly five minutes, while some of the delegates shouted, "Put Thompson out," and others, "No gag goes here."
The chairman then ordered the sergeant-at-arms, John Little, to remove Thompson, who was escorted to the rear.
A Committee on Credentials was appointed, and the roll was called. William R. Davis then moved that the temporary officers be made permanent.
Thompson then broke out again with: "I want to know what we are here for."
The sergeant-at-arms selzed Thompson and fairly dragged him to the door, but Thompson promised to remain quiet and was not put out.
After quiet had been restored the chairman was authorized to name the committee provided for in the call, to consist of seven members. Mr. Cowan said that he would name the committee and an Executive Committee during the ensuing week.

STEEL CANAL-BOATS.

From The Buffalo Commercial.

From The Buffalo Commercial,

Buffalo had more to do with the building of the steel canal-boats which arrived in this port last evening than has yet been told. The capitalists who embarked in this enterprise did not go into it without giving the matter a most thorough investigation, and this could not be done without conting to this end of the line.

Buffalo's marine and insurance men were consulted before the work of building the boats was commenced.

Reffalo's married sulted before the work of building the boats was commenced.

A prominent underwriter said to a "Commercial" reporter this morning:

"We have watched the development of this scheme from its inception and are confident it will be a financial as well as practical success. It will revolutionize the canal.

"Naturally you hear predictions of a failure and these come principally from canal men, but when such people are asked to give their reasons they are unable to do so. Every new idea or enterprise meets with this conservative notion and if attention was paid to it there would be no progress in shipbuilding, or anything else connected with "This experiment is backed by abundant capital, and the men furnishing it show good judgment in not stinting to save a dollar in the construction of these boats. They are the best that can be made at present, although some changes may be necessary.

"I think steel canal-boats for the canal are practical, and cheaper than wood. This is also the opinion of one of our most experienced canal-boat burders. He is watching this fleet, and if everything works fairly well his capital will be put juto the construction of size canal-boats.

boat builders. He is watching this fleet, and it everything works fairly well his capital will be put into the construction of steet canal-boats.

"Now, if the State will only do its duty to the canal, by improving it according to the demands of the Canal Improvement Union, we will see canal-boats on these lakes carrying all kinds of merchandise and at rates satisfactory to their builders."

The fleet came from Lorain, Ohio, and is loaded with steel rails from the Johnson works of that place. As this is a new departure in lake and canal transportation the result of the enterprise will be awaited with interest in the commercial world.

END OF THE GREAT CAMP-MEETING.

FERVID MEETINGS CLOSE THE OCEAN GROV

ASSEMBLY-HUNDREDS CONVERTED. Ocean Grove, N. J., Aug. 29 (Special).—With three tollings of the Auditorium bell the twenty-sixth annual camp-meeting was closed at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon. The thousands of campers were up early for the last day of the services. The 5:45 o'clock consecration meeting and the family devotions were largely attended. The young people's and Helping Hand meetings were put back an hour, to 8 o'clock At the former Charles H. Yatman spoke on "The True Blue and Backslidden Christian and the Un saved." There were seventeen conversions at the service. The Heiping Hand service was in charge of the Rev. William Franklin, of this place. At 9 o'clock the crowd gathered in the Auditorium where sixty infants were baptized by the Rev. J. Reeves Danlels, the Rev. Dr. I. Simmons, of Danbury, Conn., and the Rev. Dr. A. E. Ballard, vice president of the Camp Association. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper followed. This took two hours. Over two thousand joined in it. Just before its close chorus of voices was heard in the rear of the Auditorium, and down the centre aisle marched Mrs. Grace Weiser Davis, of Jersey City, the leader of the children's meeting, with eighty little ones who had been converted during the camp. They knelt in a long row around the altar and received the sacracamp. At the children's meeting there were 128 conversions; at the young people's and twilight, Mr. Yatman leader, 517 conversions, 350 backsilders re-Yatman leader, 517 conversions, 509 backsiders re-ciaimed as: 200 specially helped; at the holiness ser-vice, the liev. J. Reeves Daniels leader, 100 sancti-ned, 20 converted and reclaimed. No figures were given for the other meetings, but the outcome was highly satisfactory to he workers,

Next in order was the annual march around Zion.

Next in order was the annual march around Zion.

Next in order was the annual march around Zion.

Zion, in this case, is the Auditorium. Headed by Professor John R. Sweney, of Philadelphia, and the camp officials, the procession twice encompassed the mammoth assembly hall, singing, "We're Marching to Zion." When the line returned it was greeted with the "snowstorm" salute.

The occasion was somewnat saddened by the enforced absence of President E. H. Stokes, who is confined to his room by neuralgia. He had never before missed one of the camps, and in a letter which was read to the multitude by Mr. Daniels he expressed his bitter regret at not being able to be at the closing exercises. E. T. Lovatt, of Tarrytown, N. Y. offered a resolution of sympathy, which was passed by the whole congregation waving their handkerchiefs. When Mr. Daniels asked, "How many of you would like me to shake Dr. Stokes's hand for you?" 7,000 hands were thrust into the air toward him. The Rev. Dr. J. T. Wightman,

The throng sang "Goria Patri" and the "Dox-clogy," took a general handshake and left the grounds for home. Professor Sweney conducted a song service at 3 o'clock this afternoon in the Auditorium. To-night the grounds are dark and deserted.

A BOOM IN IRON AND STEEL.

PRICES ADVANCE IN SEVERAL LINES AND THERE IS LIKELY TO BE ACTIVE TRADE DUR-

Cleveland, Aug. 29.-"The Iron Trade Review" says to-day: Perhaps no week since the beginning of the revival in Iron five months ago has develthe one under review. From $14 to $15.50 in the valof that metal for delivery in the balance of the year is the fact on which the attention of the whole brought Bessemer iron to a point at which the price of the domestic product is from 25 to 50 cents higher in the East than foreign hematites ex-ship at Atlantic ports. The probability of materially increasing the Bessemer output in the next four months seems slight, in view of the number of furnaces in the central West that will be off through the fall The Southern situation is stronger, and another general advance of 50 cents is looked for in early fail. The 20-cent freight advance to Ohio-River points, announced for September 2, was withdrawn. The week has seen an active market in soft steel, and more Western billets have come into the Cleveland district, one 10.000-ton transaction being closed. Pittsburg, Aug. 19.—The general opinion is that the next few weeks will develop a very strong demand all transaction has fedurated as a serious description. mand all through the industries, and that pig from will find an easy distribution until there is a decline in foundry and mkl work. In Western mar-kets the indications are nor heavy orders for all ma-terial entering into implement, tool, carriage and wagon work building, fencing, etc. Advices from the South point to heavy pig iron deals.
